PREFACE

This Handbook is compiled by the Student Government Association for the convenience of Wake Forest students.

The Handbook is designed to be at once succinct and comprehensive, although it is naturally impossible to catalogue every detail of the College and of school activity. The Handbook enables newcomers to learn what activities and organizations the students maintain. Freshmen and other new students will be interested in learning the requirements for admission to organizations which they want to join. The Handbook will serve all students who wish to refer to the constitution of various organizations.

Today Wake Forest is serving more students than ever before. All availing housing space is filled to overflowing. Every student who is admitted to Wake Forest should enter with the sobering realization that when he was accepted someone else was denied entrance. With the acceptance of the Reynolds' generous offer in July 1946 and the impending move of the college to Winston-Salem, the Administration deemed it impractical to continue with the Enlargement program which has since been abandoned. However, every possible effort is being made to make the living conditions of the students as comfortable as can be under the heavily burdened facilities of the College. Your cooperation and consideration will aid greatly the efforts of the authorities.

Wake Forest is known everywhere for its traditional spirit of friendliness. Don't be alarmed if everyone speaks to you. Simply return the greeting, regardless of whether or not you have ever before met, seen, or heard of the person. As you take your place in the life of Wake Forest you will learn to know the spirit that is Wake Forest.

STUDENT OFFICIALS

1. The Student Council. The Student Council is composed of members elected by the student body as described in the Constitution. The officers are president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer.

2. The Student Legislature. Article VII of the Constitution of the Student Body specifies the membership of this organization. Its officers are chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary.

3. Class Officers. Each class elects its own officers from its own membership.

ABSENCES

All students of all classes are allowed one cut for each semester hour. A three-hour course, for instance, entitles one to three cuts in that class. One quality point will be deducted for each excessive unexcused absence. Students who take all their cuts for their own convenience may be penalized in the event emergencies necessitate further absences. In order to have a cut excused the student must go to the Dean's office and fill out the regular form, on which the student must give a full explanation of his absence.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

All students are required to attend chapel on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. The Executive Committee decides on penalties for inattendance. If a student is absent from chapel excessively this fact becomes a part of his permanent college record. Absence excuses must be filled in the Dean's office just as class absence excuses.

TRANSCRIPTS

A student is entitled to one transcript without charge. Each additional one is issued at a cost of $1.00. A transcript issued to the Bowman Gray School of Medicine carries no charge.

In case a transcript is issued during the course of a semester, the final grades for that semester are not automatically furnished the other institution unless the student requests that this be done.

DROPPING CLASSES

If a student registers for a course, he is expected to attend the course unless he makes an official change with the registrar. If a course in which the student is failing is dropped after mid-term, the grade for the course will go down as "F." A course which is dropped unofficially at any time goes down as "F."

STUDENTS ENTERING THE SERVICE

If a student finds that he has to withdraw from school during a semester, he must officially withdraw in the Dean's office, so that this fact may become a part of his permanent record, and leave him in good standing.

Students under the necessity of withdrawal to enter armed service will get a Pro rata refund on tuition.

FRESHMAN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The purpose of this committee is to make it easier for each member of the freshman class to become a worthwhile Wake Forest student. The Committee shall consider the case of any freshman who disregards any of the rules made by the Student Council for every first year man enrolled in the freshman class. This year the Student Council is acting as the Freshman Advisory Committee.

Every freshman is expected to abide by the following rules:

1. Freshmen shall at all times speak to upper-classmen and to each other when passing on the campus or in town.
2. Freshmen must attend all pep meetings and athletic contests on the campus or have some valid excuse for not doing so. At all football games they are required to sit in a body and follow instructions of the cheerleaders.
3. Freshmen shall learn all College songs and yells.

Freshmen shall purchase the College Handbook as provided by the Student Council.

ART MUSEUM

Wake Forest College is extremely fortunate in having on its campus one of the best collections of art in the South. This collection was given by Dr. Thomas Jackson Simmons, alumnus of Wake Forest.

The Simmons Art Museum, on the first floor of the Johnson Building, is open each Sunday afternoon from 3 till 5 o'clock. Prof. A. L. Aycock, curator, is present to point out the items of interest.

DEBATE ACTIVITIES

Prof. A. L. Aycock is adviser to the Debate Squad, and each year the group journeys to tournaments over the south and comes home with more than its share of trophies.

These students who achieve distinction in speech work are taken into membership of Pi Kappa Delta.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The Philomathesian and Euzelian Literary Societies, the two oldest campus organizations, account in a large measure for the wide reputation which Wake Forest men have as good speakers.

Each fall both societies hold smokers and socials to which they invite all new students. Now that the war is over, the literary societies are working to re-establish themselves in the place of prominence which they once held among campus organizations.

The Phi's and Eu's meet every Monday night at 7:15 o'clock in their respective society halls in the third floor of Wait Hall. Each fall they hold a Society Day and each spring a Founder's Day speaking contest, at which events the two groups vie for top honors.

LITTLE THEATER

The Wake Forest College Little Theater is one of the youngest and most active campus organizations. The group presents a major production each semester, with all of the work—directing, staging, and acting—done by the students themselves.

Membership in the Little Theater is obtained through the point system. The minimum number of points for membership is forty, for pledgeship, five. Points are awarded and judged on the following basis:

Major Production	Minor Production
Student Director 30-40	Student Director 15-25
Stage Manager15-35	Stage Manager10-20
Leading Role25-30	Leading Role10-15
Minor Role10-25	Minor Role 5-10
Committeemen 0-20	Committeemen 0-15

When an individual has earned as many as 60 points, he is eligible for Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity.

MUSICAL ACTIVITIES

Music now plays a more vital part in the lives of Wake Forest students than it ever has before. Music has been emphasized on this campus as a part of its tradition.

Every fair evening records are played over the loud-speaker system from 7:00 till 8:00, and the Carnegie Record set is open at 7 o'clock each night except Tuesday. A Sunday afternoon record concert is given from 4 till 5:30 over the loud speaker. Each spring an all-campus sing is sponsored, which is entered into on competitive basis by most of the College organizations.

The Glee Club is composed of mixed voices and renders a great service to the College. A concert Band and a Little Symphony Orchestra round out the list of organizations for student participation.

These three groups present concerts at intervals throughout the year, and all combine for Christmas vespers, which is one of the most beautiful services held on the campus during the year.

PUBLICATIONS

Publications Row in the Student Center is the busiest center of activity the year round in the College. Long after midnight tired, droopy, aspiring writers may be seen wending their ways home. Each week the official student newspaper, Old Gold and Black, is published, carrying a survey of the campus. For years this paper has been recognized as one of the best collegiate papers in the south.

All year long plans, hopes, aspirations and perspiration will go into putting out The Howler, which carries a record of the year of the College. The Student, campus literary magazine, is published six times during the school year.

Publications are governed by the Publications Board.

I. R. C.

On every other Tuesday evening, the International Relations Club meets to discuss issues of international significance. The club hears talks by students and faculty members. In order to become a member of the I. R. C., a student must have at least sophomore standing, and "B's" on at least six hours of work in the social sciences.

VETERANS' CLUB

Several hundred of the men students are veterans of the recent war. This number will continue to increase for perhaps two or three years. The veterans naturally feel a bond of kinship between themselves. For this reason they have organized the Veterans Club, the largest single organization on the campus. They hold weekly meetings, at which guest speakers often are heard. The Veterans Club also directs frequent drives for worthwhile causes and sponsors entertainment features for their own enjoyment and the pleasure of all the students.

FRATERNITIES

This year there are ten active social fraternities and two law fraternities on the campus. The Law fraternities are professional in nature and their membership is limited exclusively to students of the law. The aims and ideas of the fraternities are to bring together a closely knit group of men who work collectively to build the ideal college student.

These groups take the lead in furnishing social entertainment for the campus, beginning with "rush season" in the fall and lasting through a series of dances and house parties in the spring.

Fraternity life is governed by the Pan-Hellenic Council, consisting of representatives from all the active fraternities.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System at Wake Forest simply means that every man is on his honor as a gentleman to conduct himself in a manner to be expected of a gentleman and to report violations of this code of ethics on the part of others. It has been observed in the life of our College that men are more good than bad, and, given an equal opportunity, will select the right in preference to the wrong; that self government is necessary in an institution training for citizenship in a democratic state, and individual responsibility adds effort and interest on the part of the individual. All students are on their honor to refrain from such acts as cheating, hazing, stealing, and gambling; in other words, they are on their honor to do the right thing at all times and to abstain from the wrong.

The whole effort of those interested in student government at Wake Forest is bent toward making this a better place to spend four years. Let us co-operate, therefore, in the movement for better student government, better student life, and a more ideal place in which to work.

COLLEGE SONGS

One of the first requirements of a freshman is to learn the College songs, and be able to sing them. They are sung, not only at football games and special meetings, but wherever a group of Wake Forest students get together. These songs have been sung by Wake Forest men for so many years that people have forgotten who wrote some of them, but to the singers, these songs mean Wake Forest.

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
 Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
 Mother, so dear.
 Dear old Wake Forest.
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
 For'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow that lays entwine,
All honor now be thine,
 Mother, today.

HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest
 Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
 Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
 With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.
 (Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
 Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
 We'll herald her story and die for her glory.
 Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As frosh we adore her, as sophs we explore her,
 And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
 As juniors patrol her, as seniors extol her,
 And weep to leave for'er her sacred halls.

(Chorus)

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
 We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
 And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
 And sing for'er our Alma Mater's praise.

(Chorus)

GENTLE MOTHER

Music by

Old Wake Forest, gentle Mother,
 We thy children, joyful sing;
 Join our voices with each other,
 Praises today to thee we bring;
 Though we hail from head-lands, mountains,
 Though of many creeds we be,
 Though we've drunk from many fountains,

We are one in love to thee;
Ever onward, ever upward;
Lead us gently by the hand,
Ever, gentle Mother, onward,
Lead us still, thy loyal band.

Alma Mater, we invoke thee,
Let us see thy shining face;
Let us feel, we now implore thee,
All thy true, enduring grace;
With thy wisdom, gentle Mother,
Give eyes that we may see
Truth our goal, our sacred duty;
Truth alone can make us free.
On thy banner ever glorious
Truth forever shall appear;
Crown thy children's hopes victorious
With the love that casts out fear.
